

MACKENZIE PARISH

The Catholic Parish of Mackenzie, and the Catholic Diocese of Christchurch, are committed to protecting the privacy of its website users. By using this website, you accept the terms of this privacy notice. We collect some personal information about you when you fill in our contact form or using cookies.

COOKIES

A cookie is a small portion of data sent from our website to your web browser, stored on your browser while you are visiting our site. When you visit our site again, the cookie data can be easily retrieved by our website to notify us of your previous activity.

The use of cookies does not, in any way, give us access to your computer or any personal information stored on your device or hard drive. The cookies we use may vary from those described but generally, we use required cookies as strictly necessary to enable our website to operate. We also use functional cookies to help us to improve the Mackenzie Parish site by helping us to understand how our site is used and how it performs. These cookies include analytics which provide insights such as how many users we have, where the users are from, and which pages are visited.

You can access settings in your web browser to determine how cookies are used. If you do choose to adjust your browser to not accept cookies, you may experience some loss in functionality of our site.

SUBSCRIPTION FORM

The Mackenzie Parish will collect personal information from you only if you voluntarily submit this information to subscribe to our mailing list. We use this information to manage our communications. We will not disclose your information to third parties unless we have your consent, or if we are required to by law. We take all reasonable precautions to keep your information safe and secure.

We encourage you to check this page regularly to stay informed about how we are collecting, using, and protecting your personal information. If you have any questions, feel free to contact us at 03 685 8148.
